BOY RACER KILLED.

Thrown from his motorcycle, which was proceeding at a rate of 45 miles an hour over the mile course at Burke's Station, Va., yesterday afternoon, James Conway, 18 years old, of 1009 Ninth street northwest, Washington, a clerk in the patent office and a grandson of Dr. D. B. Street, received injuries which resulted in his death at Emergency Hospital shortly after 7 o'clock last night. Conway was carried to Washington on a special train, which was met at Eighth street and Maryland avenue southwest by the Emergency Hospital ambulance. Dr. McCay in charge. Conway, while not a professional racer, was an enthusiastic motorcycleist. The injured boy was hurried to the hospital, where it was found that he had sustained a compound fracture of the skull. Preparations for an operation were made, but the young man died before the physicians had a chance to begin work upon him. The race was run in connection with the Fairfax county fair, and were the principal events for the day. Eight contestants were in the 10-mile event, the third and last race of the day. Conway had ridden in the other two, and in each he finished in third position. Determined to make a better showing in the long-distance race, the young man, who had a ten-second lead over his nearest competitor, shot out in front and made the pace.

He was overtaken in the third lap by W. B. Gennella, jr., of the Cameron apartment house. Gennella and Conway were some distance in front of the other riders, and when the seventh lap had been turned the oil clogged in Gennella's machine. Taking advantage of this, Conway opened the cylinder on his wheel and as he passed Gennella looked back and smiled. Conway was making the far turn, in front by himself, and it was evident he did not consider it necessary to take the inside. This mistake cost him his life. Keeping over toward the outside poles, his machine cut into the soft turf. The rear wheel skidded, throwing its rider against a pole. His head and shoulder struck the obstruction squarely, rendering him unconscious. Physicians were called and it was decided to rush the boy to Washington, with all possible haste. Many Alexandrians witnessed the sad accident.

MEN'S MISSION CONFERENCE.

Rev. D. Clay Lilly, D. D., who will speak at the Sunday night and Monday night meetings of the Men's Missionary Conference in the Second Presbyterian Church, is a man in an unique position. More than a year ago he made an address at the meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Birmingham, Ala., and his address was such a remarkably able one, and one that made such a deep impression, that a layman and business man present called on Dr. Lilly to give up his large and flourishing church at Winston, N. C., and at this man's expense give his entire time to going all through the south delivering this address, and Dr. Lilly finally agreed to do so. It is this address that he will give at the Sunday night meeting of the conference and the men of Alexandria will be given this opportunity of hearing him.

SWING BREAKS WITH TWO.

Thrown to the ground by the breaking of a swing rope, Beulah Vanhorn, of Arlington, Va., and Susie Richmond, of 2146 O street northwest, Washington, each thirteen years old, were slightly injured at the Anthony Hyde Public School, in Georgetown, shortly after noon yesterday.

Dr. John Thomas, physician to the school, and Dr. William O. Gwynn, of 3836 O street northwest, were hurriedly summoned by Miss Chase, principal of the building, and the children's injuries were dressed.

FELL OVERBOARD.

A party of gentlemen went down the river yesterday as the guests of Admiral Calmes on the yacht Augusta to enjoy an oyster roast. The oysters were of a fine variety and were much enjoyed. After passing the day safely the party returned home and on alighting from the yacht a guest lost his balance and fell in the river at the foot of Prince street. A heroic rescue followed and the gentleman in question was saved from a watery grave.

THIEVES TAKE CLOTHING.

Mr. J. B. Padgett, freight agent of the Washington, Alexandria, and Mount Vernon Railway Company, reported to the Washington police yesterday that the office of the company, located at Thirteenth-and-a-half and O streets southwest, Washington, had been broken into Wednesday night and several articles of wearing apparel stolen. Detectives were assigned to the case, but at a late hour last night no arrests had been made.

QUIETLY MARRIED.

Miss Mary Travers Arrington, of Washington, and Mr. William T. Hinken, of this city, were quietly married at noon yesterday in Baltimore. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hinken returned to this city where they will reside.

Jr. O. U. A. M.

Jas. W. Jackson Council No. 55, Jr. O. U. A. M., held its regular meeting last night, at which six candidates were initiated in the mysteries of the order. The meeting was followed by a smoker.

RED MEN GATHER.

One of the largest gatherings seen for many days was that in attendance at the installation of the new tribe of R. d Men at Old Fellows' Hall last night, 154 members of the Washington Red Men being present to assist in the exercises and the spacious hall being filled to overflowing.

The officers installed were J. William May, sachem; A. L. Jameson, senior sagamore; D. E. Robey, junior sagamore; R. S. Barrett, prophet; H. Noel Garner, chief of records; Harry D. Kirk, collector of wampum; Carroll H. May, keeper of wampum; Arthur H. Mitchell, W. H. Charles, Carroll D. Woolf, trustees; Albert McCuen, keeper of wigwag; K. W. Ogden, first sash; O. W. Shaffer, second sash; C. P. Heishley, first warrior; W. M. Glasgow, second warrior; O. H. Kirk, third warrior; L. P. Woodward, fourth warrior; Geo. L. Appleb, first brave; E. L. Fox, second brave; Dennis Ramsey, third brave; A. K. Wardfield, fourth brave; A. D. Grimes, guard of forest; E. S. Smith, guard of wigwag; Kenneth W. Ogden, H. Noel Garner, W. S. Nicklin and J. William May, committee on by-laws; Louis P. Woodward, O. H. Kirk, A. D. Grimes, W. S. Nicklin and J. William May, committee on supplies.

Over 100 members of Osceola Tribe assisted and there were present of the new tribe 45 members. After the ceremony a "smoker" was enjoyed. The new tribe is known as Seminole, No. 35, and among those who took part in the ceremonies were J. B. Altman, great sachem of the District of Columbia and his corps of great chiefs. The degrees and secret work of the order was exemplified by Past Great Sachem Madison and his degree team of Washington.

A very interesting meeting of Mary Custis Lee Chapter, U. D. C., was held in the Confederate Veterans' building, Tuesday afternoon. Business of interest to the chapter was transacted; subjects of vital importance to the welfare of the association in the state were thoroughly and intelligently discussed and matters concerning the entire organization of the U. D. C. received profound consideration. The handsome new piano, recently purchased by the junior daughters and by them presented to R. E. Lee Camp, was received with much pleasure; and the action of these younger people heartily concurred in. This magnificent instrument is an ornament to the rooms as well as a necessary adjunct to the success of the many historical, literary, benevolent and social entertainments to be given in this beautiful building. Donations were made to the Shiloh Monument fund; the Virginia room in the Confederate Museum at Richmond; the state president's expense fund to U. D. C. convention in Atlanta; and other contributions to worthy objects, promised in the future. Altogether the chapter is in first class condition, and feels justly proud of its good work. The following delegates were elected to represent the chapter at Manassas next week, where the annual meeting of the Virginia Division, U. D. C., will be held: Mrs. Philip T. Yeatman, Mrs. Dabney Herndon, Mrs. James E. Alexander, Mrs. Owen S. Willey, of Washington; Mrs. Edwin H. O'Brien, Alternates, Miss Mary Lee Lloyd, Miss Ada H. Garrett, Mrs. D. J. Howell, Miss Edna H. Alexander, Miss L. J. Zimmerman.

PAINFULLY HURT.
While Mr. R. Bruce Emerson was operating a machine at the Emerson Steam Pump Works, late yesterday afternoon, the forefinger of his right hand was caught in the cogwheels and almost severed. After Dr. S. B. Moore had dressed his injury Mr. Emerson went to his home in Washington. The remarkable nerve displayed by Mr. Emerson in directing the men what to do in order to release his hand excited the admiration of those who witnessed the accident.

ORDERED TO BE DESTROYED.
As was stated in the Gazette, Constable A. J. Fay, of Fairfax county, captured a ducking gun of unlawful calibre at the Dyke a few days ago. The gun, which was about seven feet long, was taken before Justice Wright on Wednesday who ordered it to be destroyed at once. The towing piece was subsequently turned over to a blacksmith who proceeded to cut it up.

IMPORTANT CASE.
Tomorrow at 10 o'clock an important case will be heard before U. S. Commissioner R. P. W. Garrett when George W. Burgess of Broad Run, Fauquier county, will be tried for violation of the county, will be tried for violation of the postal laws in sending a scurrilous post card to Mrs. Ellen Sanders, of New Baltimore. Mr. Burgess will be represented by Judge Charles E. Nicol, of Prince William county and Mr. Robert A. McIntyre, of Warrenton.

CORPORATION COURT.
The October term of the Corporation Court will begin on Monday next. Judge Barley has ordered summoned a special grand jury for Wednesday to take up the cases of the prisoners now confined in jail and any other matters that may be presented.

MASS MEETING OF BOYS AND GIRLS.

At the Second Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon Rev. Mottie Martin will tell of some of his strange experiences with strange men and strange animals in a strange land—Africa. Mr. Martin has a peculiar gift in speaking to children, and makes a lasting impression on all who hear him. He has been before African kings, has seen ferocious wild animals, and once had to run three days to escape with his life from the savages who pursued him. He was on the steamer Lapsley which sank on the Congo some years ago, when an Alexandrian boy, Mr. Henry Slaymaker, was drowned. The church doors will be opened to children at 2 o'clock, and to both grown and young people at 2:15 on Sunday afternoon, and the address will begin promptly at 2:30. The public is invited. There is little doubt but that the church will be crowded, as most all the Sunday schools in the city will turn out to hear the young missionary. Mr. Martin himself has a Sunday school in Africa with about 2000 little blacks who attend. He knows them all by name.

REINICKER LECTURES.

The first course of Reinicker lectures for the present season was delivered by Dr. Frederick J. Bliss, of Beirut, Syria, at the Episcopal Seminary, near this city, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday (today) of this week. The subject was "Explorations in Palestine." Dr. Bliss was for many years president of the well-known Protestant College at Beirut, which has been such a centre for higher education in Syria. Dr. Bliss who is now delivering lectures in this country was connected for ten or twelve years with the Palestine Exploration Society of England, and conducted explorations of great importance himself at Jerusalem and Lachish which he described with much interest. The lecture on Wednesday was accompanied by stereoscopic views which illustrated much of Dr. Bliss's work of exploration.

DEATH ON SEMINARY HILL.

Mr. Albert Lockhart, a well known and respected resident of Seminary Hill, died last night about eight o'clock after an illness of several months' duration. He and his family had recently removed from their home at Howardsville to "Vauxcluse" to take care of the residue for the winter during the residence of Mr. Andrews and his family at their home in Washington. Mr. Lockhart was a native of Croydon, near London, England, and settled near the Seminary years ago. He leaves a widow, who is a sister of Mr. John Pugh, and two children. The funeral will take place at the Chapel of the Holy Spirit, Howardsville, at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, the services being conducted by Rev. S. A. Wallis, of the Seminary, and the interment will be in Ivy Hill Cemetery.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Elite Moving Picture show at Schuler's Hall will present to the amusement lovers "Old Sleuth," the detective. There are few even of the younger generation who do not appreciate this story and tonight it can be realized in moving pictures. It is a great show. At the Alexandria Amusement Company "Older Joe" will be presented to the people for their amusement in addition to other fine reels. The motion pictures at this house are attracting crowds who pronounce them first class. At the Opera House in addition to the usual good programme Mrs. A. D. Montier will render a few pleasing selections. Mrs. Montier has delighted Alexandrian audiences on many occasions with her entertaining selections and no doubt will be warmly welcomed on her initial appearance this evening.

SPEAKS TONIGHT.

Ex-Senator Lewis H. Machen, who has been speaking throughout this congressional district in the interest of the democratic party, will speak tonight at the Riggs House in Washington.

REDUCTION SALE.

Attention is called to an unusual reduction in prices at Bernheimer & Co's tomorrow. Shoes of the best quality will be ruthlessly sacrificed. Clothing of all kind at your own price. See advertisement on this page.

FEAST OF TABERNALES.

The Jewish feast of Tabernacles (or Booths) will be celebrated in the synagogue in this city tonight. A booth will be erected in the synagogue.
